Sterling

A Square Deal in Ale

That's what the Official Faucet for Rueter's good Sterling Ale stands for.

That is how it works out—

First He furnishes the nickel, and the ought to get what he asks for. If Consumer he has the good sense to ask for Sterling, the Official Faucet gives him a means of insisting upon the genuine brew.

Then If he pays an extra price for the quality, his trade should know it.
 Retailer He should not have to meet the unfair competition of his neighbor who draws ordinary ales. The Official Faucet on the bar tells the story.

Finally No other ale is so often ordered the by name as Sterling. This demand Brewer belongs to those who have created it by long brewing of fine malt beverages. The Official Faucet protects the good name of their brew.

This year's tobacco crop in Porto Rico is the finest ever grown. Only the choicest selections are used to make the El Toro. For these reasons the El Toros now on the market are particularly recommended. El Toro has always been the finest 5-cent value Porto Rico produced—this year they're better than ever.

The increased cost of genuine Porto Rican leaf has brought forward many brands which are made largely from tobacco grown in the United States—so you can't be too particular to see that you get the genuine.

This is the one cigar you can be sure is genuine Porto Rican—in quality as well
